

Finding Locums in the Lower Mainland

Below are some resources you may find helpful when looking for a locum:

ADVERTISING

- College of Physicians and Surgeons website www.cpsbc.ca/node/171
 - Lists physicians available for locums
 - Physicians can advertise placement opportunities on website at no charge. Click here to download form
- North Shore Division of Family Practice website. No charge to advertise physician placement opportunities. Contact Division Coordinator Lkeenan@divisionsbc.ca
- Locums.ca <http://locums.ca/job-poster-faq> will post ads on their website and distribute in weekly emails to their locum physician members (over 1,000 members). Ad costs $35 - $100 depending on practice type and is posted for up to 3 months. Click here for helpful hints on writing the ad.

RECRUITERS

- HealthMatch BC www.healthmatchbc.org no-fee, health care professional recruitment service established by the MoHS
 - Physician completes registration form
 - HealthMatch emails CVs of potential candidates
 - Physician does reference checks, contacts locum directly and contracts with them individually

CONTRACTS

- Contract templates
 - For a generic locum contract (long version) click here
 - For a generic locum contract (short version) click here
 - For a generic Schedule A to attach to contracts above click here